23. Entering Component

Enter the name of the service component that the client will be entering.

24. Re-Entry

Check whether the client is new or re-entering services.

PART B. ASSESSMENT

As the Service Provider/Referral Agency Worker interviews the client, he/she will complete questions 25-29. Based on the responses to the questions, the Worker will assess the client's level of employability. Levels of employability are defined as follows:

1. Level I The eligible refugee/asylee/trafficking victim needs employment services only.
2. Level II The eligible refugee/asylee/trafficking victim needs more than employment services but does not need the full range of services (e.g., employment services and ESL only).
3. Level III The eligible refugee/asylee/trafficking victim needs the full range of services (employment, ESL, VESL, Vocational Training, OJT, Work Experience and Educational Services).

Self-Sufficiency/Employability (For all of the AU)

The Service Provider/Referral Agency (henceforth referred to as "Referral Agency") Worker will complete this Plan based on the results of Part B. Include services to any member of the AU that increase the likelihood that the AU will earn enough to become self-sufficient. The specific services, service providers, referral dates and anticipated dates for completion must be included. The worker will sign and date the application and obtain supervisorial approval. It is the supervisor's responsibility to ensure the client is eligible for services, the assessment has been completed, and the employment plan is accurate and appropriate for the client.

Progress Record

The service provider to which the client has been referred is responsible for completing the Progress Record. This includes the specific service and level provided, the Referral Agency who is providing the service, the actual start and completion dates, the drop date and reason, and an authorized signature. The Referral Agency is responsible for updating the Referral Agency client case files from the progress report completed by the service providers. This should be done every time a client returns to the Referral Agency.

PART C. STATE HEARING STATEMENT AND WAIVER OF CONFIDENTIALITY

Immediately upon completion of Parts A and B, the State Hearing and Waiver of Confidentiality Statements must be signed and dated by the client and the Referral Agency Worker. If the client cannot read the statements and/or cannot understand them, it is the responsibility of the Referral Agency Worker to explain them and to ensure that the client understands them before he/she signs.
