

Situation:

HH consists of father, mother and 2 aided children. Father was going to school in the review month. Mother is in the Air National Guard Reserves. She was paid for this time and received her last pay check in the review month.

Question:

Is paid time served in the military considered employment?

Are these hours recorded on T49 and the income recorded on T64C?

Answer:

Yes.

T49 and T64C are the correct items to be completed.

Military service is considered employment.