TYPES OF ADOPTIONS - The following four types of adoptions are available in California for children under 18 years of age:

- Agency (Relinquishment) Adoption: Adoption of children who are placed for adoption by a licensed public or private adoption agency that has custody of the child as the result of either the parent(s) voluntarily relinquishing their legal rights to the agency or involuntary termination of parents' legal rights by the court.
- Independent Adoption (I): Parent(s) place directly with prospective adoptive parent(s) for the purpose of adoption. Only the CDSS district offices and delegated counties provide services under the Independent Adoption Program. Those delegated counties are marked (I).
- Intercountry Adoption: Adoption of foreign-born children for whom federal law makes a special immigration visa available. Intercountry adoption may be finalized in the child's native country or in California.
- Stepparent Adoption: Stepparents may adopt the children of their spouses. Local county probation or welfare departments handle these adoptions. For more information, contact your local probation or child welfare department.

FEES – Fees are set by law for public agencies (maximum of $500 for agency adoptions and $4500 for an independent adoption). Private agencies charge varying fees depending on the services provided.

CDSS ADOPTIONS DISTRICT OFFICES – CDSS Adoption District Offices provide independent adoption services in specific counties (see areas served). In addition, CDSS Adoption District Offices provide agency adoption services in those counties that do not have a licensed public adoption agency. The symbol (A) denotes those counties for which district offices provide these services. The symbol (I) denotes those counties for which district office provides independent adoption services

LICENSED COUNTY (PUBLIC) ADOPTION AGENCIES – County child welfare departments provide agency adoption services. In addition, independent adoption services are provided by those county welfare departments delegated by the CDSS to study and report to the court when county residents file independent adoption petitions. An (I) indicates those delegated counties providing independent adoption services.

LICENSED PRIVATE ADOPTION SERVICES – Private adoption agencies are licensed to provide direct adoption services. These services vary from agency to agency and are defined by their license. Questions about specific services provided should be addressed to the individual agency.

TYPES OF ADOPTION LICENSES – The following is a listing of the types of licenses issued to private adoption agencies.

- Full Service (FS): A license that authorizes an adoption agency to assume care, custody and control of a relinquished child. It also authorizes the agency to assess birth parents and prospective adoptive parents, place a child for adoption, supervise that adoptive placement, and to remove a child from an unsuitable adoptive placement.
- Noncustodial (NC): A license that authorizes an adoption agency to work in cooperation with a full service agency to match prospective adoptive parents with children who are under the care, custody and control of the full service agency. Noncustodial agencies are also authorized under this license to assess prospective adoptive families and, in cooperation with full service agencies, to supervise adoptive placements, but are not authorized to remove a child from an unsuitable placement. A noncustodial agency cannot assume care, custody and control of a child, nor can they make adoptive placements.
- Intercountry (ICA): A license that authorizes an adoption agency to provide adoption services to finalize the adoption of foreign born children either in the child's native country (non-custodial) or in California (full service). An intercountry license is issued only to private adoption agencies. County adoption agencies do not provide intercountry adoption services.
