SUBJECT: ALL COUNTY LETTER 87-124

Please replace the original page containing "Example 2" in All County Letter Number 87-124 with the attached page. The original example contained an incorrect statement regarding the claiming of a month in which a recipient has a remainder of lump sum income and also has eligibility for a full month of Shaw benefits.

If you have any questions regarding claiming procedures for Shaw cases, please call Stephanie Davis at (916) 323-0267 or ATSS 473-0267.

The following examples assume the cases are in retrospective budgeting, with the POI beginning in the payment month.

EXAMPLE 2.

Recipient receives a lump sum and the federal POI is two months plus a remainder of $100. The recipient has eligibility for the full three months of state-only U benefits.

Treatment:

The case is suspended for one month and Shaw benefits are granted for two months (the full ineligible month and the following partial month). Aid codes for these two months must be changed to 35 State-only, with nonfederal persons counts. The remainder amount is not counted as income in the remainder month.

Lump Sum Rec'd	Federal AFDC	Suspense	Shaw	Shaw Covers Remainder Amount. Entire Month is State-Only	Fed. AFDC
		POI	POI	Remainder Mo.

(NOTE: Retrospective budgeting usually continues after a suspense month. However, if a reduced income supplemental payment is made in the suspense month, prospective budgeting will commence in the month following suspense.)
