

Short-Film Screenings For Refugee Awareness Month

Learn the plight of a refugee.

Come watch four short-film screenings in honor of Refugee Awareness Month and World Refugee Day on June 19, 2015 in the CDSS auditorium.

Films will play from 11:30am to 1:30pm.

Light refreshments will be served.

“Syria’s Lost Generation: The Plight of the Youngest Refugees”

A portrait of children forced to flee their homes in Syria and live uncertain lives as refugees.

“Refugees: A Chance to Learn” – A UNHCR Special Report

Worldwide, over 1 million refugee children are out of school. For children like Samia and Tomasa, overcoming these challenges could make a world of difference.

“Undocumented and Underage: The Crisis of Migrant Children” – A VICE News Special Report

VICE News travelled to the border between Texas and Tamaulipas to speak to people who have been detained on both sides of the border. They told us about their reasons for crossing the border, how they were detained, what their stay was like inside the detention centers, their plans for the future, and their fears.

“Human Trafficking in Central California”

This short-film is a short, compelling documentary of human trafficking in Central California. Raises awareness of human trafficking local to California, but also in every state of the U.S. and countries all over the world.
